Barn Party

With the student body getting into their groove and chipping away at the semester, there is always a need for some fun. Barn Party, an annual fall event that provides a dance floor and food, asks students to bring the costumes. The music and laughs carry on through the night as memories are made. Whether it is the Replacement Referees and their constant efforts to throw flags on a song, or Jonah trying to outrun that pesky Whale, the evening is very entertaining.

"Barn Party really lets me get loose with my dance moves and act like a fool with no shame." -Brooks Boyce

"All summer I thought about Barn Party and what costume I was going to wear; it's the event of the year!" -Savanna Floyd

Winter Banquet activity?

MCC

Lost Boys Ben Grogg and Ray Sanders stand behind Magic Makers Larry and Bev Olson and enjoy watching students party on the dance floor.

Winter Banquet

Just before finals, students gathered one last time for an evening to remember. This year's theme "Magic Kingdom" was inspired by Walt Disney. On that chilly winter night, princes and princesses, Cheetah Girls, Lost Boys, Mickey and his gang, and even some of the Star Wars gang got fancied up and came to Winter Banquet 2012. The Hilton Garden Inn provided a great meal and a dance floor, the DJ brought the tunes, Campus Program Council sprinkled around magical decorations, and the students brought their dance moves.

The marvelous evening also included some other special events! There was a raffle drawing where prizes such as movies, video games, a TV, Beats headphones, and iPhone cases were given away throughout the night. When students were not busy eating, dancing, or checking their raffle number, they could hop on a horse drawn carriage ride around Downtown Manhattan.

Christian Hall enjoys a quick snack before heading back to the dance floor to show his moves.

What is your favorite
Skip Day activity

MCC

Ryan O'Neill and Robin Diehl lead the student body in worship, bringing skip day to an end.

Skip Day

Skip Day is a great day where the students and staff can come together and not have to worry about class or homework. The hardest decision anyone has to make is what Cold Stone ice cream to enjoy!

"My favorite part about Skip Day was the worship night. It was a great time for the students to come together and worship as a body, it gave me extra motivation to finish the rest of the semester!" -Valencia Meyer

"Cade Beckner's devo was my favorite part because it was great to see someone from my class leading so many people. It started Skip Day off well!" -Zach Reaser

"As a leader of CPC it was great to see most of the student body get involved even though the weather in the beginning wasn't not nice, it was one of the biggest turns outs that we have had! It was also nice that everything slowed down a little and everyone had a chance to breathe and not be stressed out for a day." -Ethan Hutchcraft

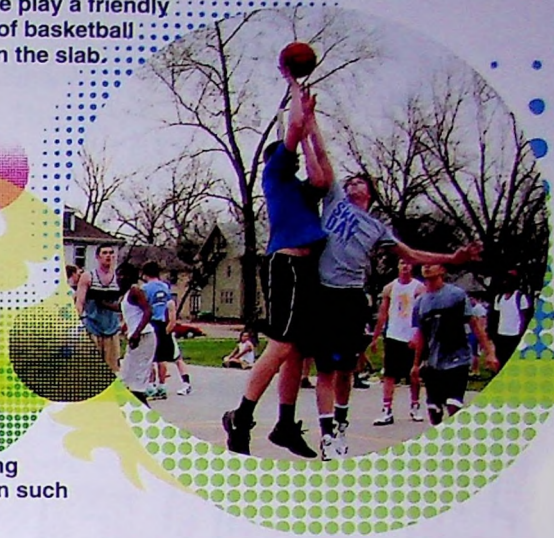

Jayme Miller is having a great time playing the MCC version of Angry Birds.

Brady Field is enjoying playing with bubbles on such a nice day.

William Chisam and Brooks Boyce play a friendly game of basketball on the slab.

What is your favorite
Spring Banquet activity?

MCC

Ethan Hutchcraft and Sam Field try to do the Robot dance while Isaac Wilson gives them his expert advice.

Spring Banquet

The end of the year can get pretty stressful and one of the best ways to remove this stress is to... DANCE... The Spring Banquet was at the Sunset Zoo Nature Conservation Center. The dance floor was filled with MCC'ers showing off and having fun with their friends. A Photo Booth gave friends a place to go and be as silly as they wanted. Many great memories were made at the 2013 Spring Banquet. The Campus Program Council asked students to create and submit videos. Judged by the Admissions Office, the winner was Kaitlyn Black with "Feline Fitness." "2FS Mocumentary," by Ryan O'Neill and the men of 2FS came in a close second, followed by "The Dart Game" by Joe Simon and Ethan Pope in third place and "The Patience Test" by Sagan Scates, Ashley Swartzentruber, Jayme Miller, Carrie Pilkington, and Amy Tippin in fourth. The video competition gets better and better each year.

Eric Bolduc decided to be king and made all his subordinates raise him up so he could be seen by all.

Jaylin Storm gets "jiggy-with-it" and impresses the crowd with his moves.

Zane Kaehr dances so well that all others back away and watch in amazement.

Ahta Saengsirikhun, Matt Briggs, Adam Herbert, Andrew Nicoll, Iulian Gheorghe, and Ryan O'Neill enjoy hanging out while watching others make fools of themselves.

Libby Witte, Kaylan Fagley, Alicia Henry, and Sarah Wenger enjoy an evening of fine dining and plenty of music.

Where was your favorite place to volunteer?

MCC

Jayme Miller and Lauren Stroud wait to hear instructions from the leaders at Habitat for Humanity.

KD: Community

Kerusso Dayz is a great tradition at MCC, and our fall community work is a great way for students to give back. This year we volunteered at Hope Ranch, Boys and Girls Club, Flint Hills Bread Basket, Big Brothers, Big Sisters, Habitat for Humanity, Manhattan Emergency Shelter, and a variety of other acts of kindness around the neighborhood.

"I really enjoyed Hope Ranch. We got to help feed the horses, bring them in to the barn, and even play in the hay!" -Jayme Miller

"Getting to help the community, learn about the shelter, and get in my workout was my favorite part." -Nick Johnson

"Kerusso Dayz is great because it motivates us to serve our community." -Ali Avery

"The people I worked with were super great." -Miranda McMahon

"I enjoyed volunteering as a team. We had a great time." -Jordan Morrow

Abby Baker, Caitlin Bliss, Cortney Bobb, Eric Bolduc, Ethan Hutchcraft, Lindsay Keller, Ethan Pope, and Ashley Swartzentruber spent their Spring Break serving in Purto Penisco, Mexico. They built a house for a needy local family and worked at a local orphanage.

"I was really impacted by the community." -Eric Bolduc

"One of my favorite things was experiencing the culture and interacting the with the locals again after being in Mexico City for two months."

-Ethan Hutchcraft

"My favorite part of serving in Mexico was hanging out with the kids. I went on the trip thinking I could make an impact, but the impact the people had on me was definitely bigger than I had imagined."

Some of the grateful people in Brazil that our group helped while spreading the Good News of Jesus.

KD: International

Four brave girls and Mr. Thornley heard a calling to give up a part of their summer and go to Brazil to be the hands and feet of God. They went to work with a church plant and spread the living Word of God. All of the girls had a great time and learned a lot through this experience. This trip was not easy, it took great patience every step of the way, but was well worth it in the end!

Sarah Wenger said:

This was one of the most challenging and frustrating trips I have been a part of. But, despite the transportation difficulties and the changing of plans, I learned how to effectively show God's love and what it really means to be a servant. Our team grew very close to each other as well as close to the Brazilians. They will forever be in our hearts.

Miranda McMahon said:

The trip was fun and I learned a lot. God sure tested our patience as a team and individually. Nothing we planned went the way it was planned. But, no matter what, we rolled with the punches. As a team we learned God works in His own way and time and we just have to be obedient.

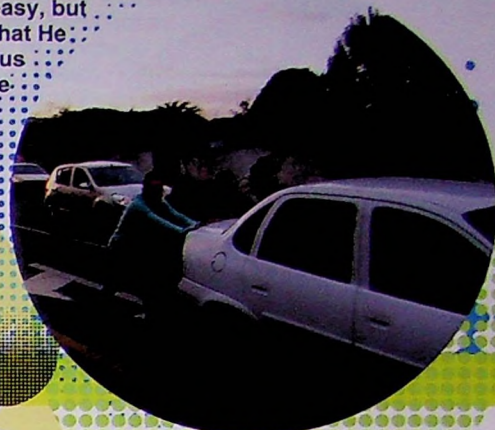

A couple of great shots of the city where they spread the Word God.

God tells us that doing His work will not be easy, but the good news is that He will never gives us difficulties that we cannot handle. Even with car trouble, they continue to smile.

The girls are packed and ready to hit the road!

They finally made it!! The traveling is over. Time to meet up with the church plant and begin to spread the Word.

Miranda McMahon, Brianna Barone, Abby Baker, and Sarah Wenger enjoying their time together and excited for this awesome adventure in Brazil.

What is your favorite part of chapel?

MCC

Connor Braun is one of the many talented students who challenged us through worship each Thursday.

Chapel

"The Jesus part. And the variety of the speakers, whether it is a professor, current senior, graduate, or friend of the college. They all make the message exciting and interesting!"
-Matt Briggs

"I thought it was cool to be able to give back to the school. It was fun to show underclassmen what they get to learn and show off what the professors have taught us."
-Chris Powell

"I love the Senior Sermon Series!!!" -Tanner Bott

"My favorite part of chapel is the Senior Sermon Series!"
-Haley Field

"Worship is probably my favorite part of chapel, but I enjoy it all. The Senior Sermon Series is pretty cool; they are easy to relate to. But I am kind of a sucker for chapel."
-Wade Davis

"WORSHIP! I love the worship!!!"
-Karla Barber

Robin Diehl and Tanner Bott were two of the worship leaders for Chapel.

Ryan O'Neill, a very talented musician, leads the students, staff, and faculty in worship.

Brandon Talley

These students will be traveling to different church camps, meeting with prospective students and putting their leadership skills to the test. They are important relationship builders for the college.

Athletics

Volleyball

The Lady Crusaders served up an overwhelming amount of victories in the 2012 season. With a large number of newcomers, the sheer talent of these women was obvious from the beginning. Forced to go through some challenges as a team, they were inspired to grow closer and stronger. No longer were these ladies just teammates, but lifelong friends.

The two goals they had set for themselves were both reached by the end of the year. The first of these was to finish Conference play undefeated, which they accomplished. The second goal was to win Regionals, which they achieved as well. These hard working ladies made it all the way to Nationals in Florida. After the season came to an end, these women were proud to share all they had accomplished. They are looking forward to playing again next year for an even better season of volleyball.

Amy Tippin goes up strong for a big hit.

"MCC volleyball opened the door for so many great things throughout my career: friendship, competition, travel, new experiences, sleepovers, late night chats, meeting my hubby, and so much more. I am so grateful for the many wonderful memories and thanks to them I have high standards for old lady rec leagues."

-Kayla Hawkins

Kylie Rupe prepares to slam down the ball on her Grace opponent. Kayla Hawkins hits over the defenders block. Carrie Pilkington tips the ball away from the block. Paige Mortensen sets up Alyssa Strain for a kill.

Carrie Pilkington and Amy Tippin block their Grace opponent.

Women's Soccer

The season for the Women's Soccer team was a rough one at best. With only a few returners, the team was working from the ground up. From day one, they had to work hard to come together as a team. Coach Scott Clark asked the team to give him everything they could and midway through the season, things started to click. They came out on top of Faith Baptist and Providence College and rounded off the season with a win against Dallas Christian. They are hoping for better results next season.

Brooke Haas takes on members of the opposing team as she works to move the ball down the field.

Emily Fahey clears the ball to the offensive half of the field.

-Kaitlyn Black

Tiffany Cleven avoids a tackle to take control of the ball.

Kaitlyn Black punches the ball away from the goal.

Logan Pittman uses a free kick to push down the field.

Michelle Kejr stays close to her opponent to keep the ball away from the goal.

Jamie Haas challenges a forward in an attempt to keep her from scoring.

Men's Soccer

This year the Men's Soccer team had a great season that reflected much improvement. Last year their record was 13-9-0 and in 2012 they finished with a 19-6-0 record. They were 6-0 in the conference, and undefeated in the region. In addition to improving their regular season record the Men's Soccer team also won third place in the NCCAA Division II National Tournament, ranking them #3 in the nation. When asked about the season, Head Coach Rick Wright said this, "We accomplished our main goals to grow as Christians, men, and leaders". He also said, "I am very proud of these guys. They played very well." This new line-up of players has a lot of potential for years to come. Keep up the good work guys!

Cross Country

Discipline, perseverance, and teamwork are all characteristics that make this team champions in their own right. The sweat and spirit put into the daily runs and tough training improved their abilities and brought them closer together as a team. Each runner ran each race with heart, determination, and the will to be the best they could be. Even though some days it felt like torture when their bodies became weary, their minds were strong and they pushed through the pain and were victorious. Among the miles of Linear Trail, the hills of Konza Prairie, and the meets throughout the Midwest, the team ran over 3000 miles. Each competitor displayed amazing sportsmanship and built bonds that will never be broken. Throughout the year the team never lost sight that they were running for God and not for men. The cross country program continues to improve every year and this year's was the best so far.

Women's Basketball

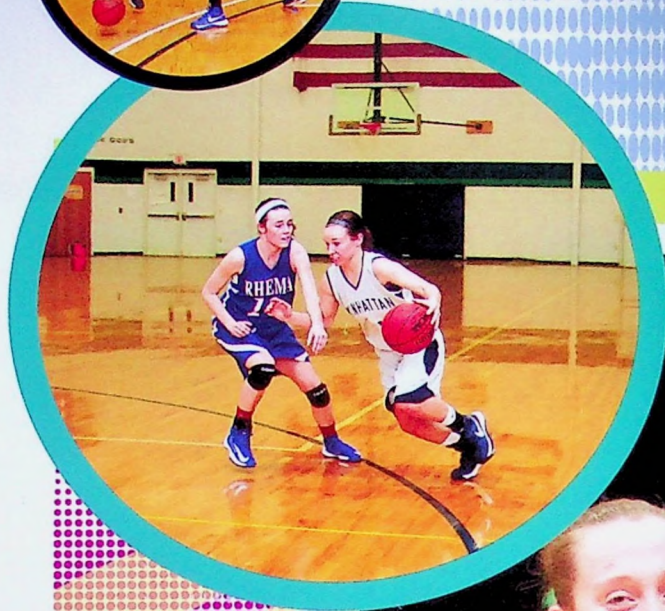

With four Seniors and Coach Larry Olsen leading the team, we knew this year was going to be a season to remember. The Lady Crusaders went 8-0 in the Conference. They went on to be ranked as the first place seed for Regionals and finished second at Nationals. With a group of incredibly talented women, this season made the student body come together to cheer on their team.

"We had a blast together playing the sport we love! It was a great season full of joy, growing together physically and spiritually." Alicia Henry

"My MCC basketball career was an unforgettable experience...I had the best time developing relationships, going on road trips, and growing closer to God while winning games at the same time. I couldn't have asked for a better way to go out than taking 2nd place at Nationals with my girls. It was never about winning it all; it was about giving God the glory."
-Lindsey Anderson

 Ashley Valentine powers over her Hillsdale opponent to get the basket.
 Lindsey Anderson go up for a lay-up during the Ozark game.
 Staci Dole steals the balls and heads down the court.

Senior Night for Liz Jackson, Alicia Henry, Lindsey Anderson, and Kaylan Fagley.

Men's Basketball

The Crusader men's basketball team ended the season with a 23-13 record. After winning only one of the first six games, the team did not give up. They battled on and after lots of hard work they began to win the majority of their games. "I am really proud of the way we battled back from early season diversity to make our seventh straight conference title and a trip to the national tournament." said Jordan Strom, Assistant Coach. The season may have been a lot of work but that didn't stop every one from enjoying their time on the court. "Our season went really well, even though we had ups and downs it was a heck of a lot of fun playing together." said David Frost. Even Ben Hammack, the Student Assistant Coach described the season as fun, "Overall, we achieved most of our goals and we had a lot of fun. We were a very capable team that hoped we could have gone further. There were no seniors on the team so most of the young team will be back next year.

Jack Mitchell charges to the basket without any hindrance from his Grace opponent. Bryce Birtell reaches high to win the jump ball.

"We had a great group of guys who were passionate about working hard and succeeding. That, mixed with great coaching, was a perfect recipe for success. It was some of the most fun I've ever had playing basketball. I wish the season never ended!"

-Josh Camacho

Josh Camacho makes an easy basket during the Ozark game. Reece Childers lays one in. Superman? No it's Ben Svorinic with the dunk. Lonnie Penner for another three pointer.

Alex Hammack powers over his Grace opponent.

Baseball

With all new beginnings come new challenges and Coach Guinty's first season at the helm of the Crusader baseball team was no exception. After significant roster turnover from a team that finished the 2012 season 3rd in the NCCAA the Crusaders were left with an inexperienced roster. As the games came and went, the Crusaders found themselves looking for their first win of the season and it came in the most unlikely of places.

MCC went into the game against the McPherson College with a winless record and shaken confidence. But that afternoon in McPherson, KS, that shaky confidence turned into rock solid determination as the Crusaders found themselves in a dogfight with MC. Through 2 ½ innings the game was scoreless and then the Bulldogs scored one run in the bottom of the third. With offense being at a premium that could have been the end, but a resilient MCC team led by James Floyd, Adam Schmitz, and Aaron Lassley MCC was able to answer with three runs in the top half of the fourth. The Crusaders held on to win the game 3-2.

The victory over McPherson College was the first on the season, but more importantly the first in the career of Head Coach Kasey Guinty. Coach Guinty is working hard to put together a solid recruiting class that will add roster depth at key positions.

The team huddles before the Hillsdale game.

"With a season full of ups and downs, the Crusaders never gave up. These boys battled through every game. I am proud of the way they carried themselves and represented MCC throughout the season."

-Kasey Guinty

Second basemen Cody Jones makes the catch for the out.

Nick Noren throws a long ball to make a play at first base. Trey Shelton helps make a double play.

Pitcher Ben Rankin runs to cover first while Aaron Lassley grabs the ball.

Alex Campbell connects for a hit.

MCC

Graduation

Fifty-four degrees were conferred this year. MCC alumnus Dr. Amy Hanson, a speaker, writer, and consultant on how to reach older adults and keep them involved, addressed the graduates with a challenge entitled "Resolve."

This year's class represents a wide span of ministry interests including: 18% Bible; 17% Bible and Leadership; 17% Youth Ministry; 15% Management and Ethics; 13% Family Ministry; 9% Worship Ministry; 7% Pastoral Ministry; 2% Cross-Cultural Ministry; 2% Educational Ministry and one Certificate of Biblical Leadership. Nine percent of the class was involved in the dual-degree program between MCC and KSU and those students graduated with two bachelor's degrees.

MCC trains Christian leaders to penetrate the world with the Gospel regardless of their chosen profession.

"My plan after graduation is to marry the most handsome and incredible man in the world. I will also be working on the A-team bringing cool high school kids to MCC."

-Maeghan Diehl

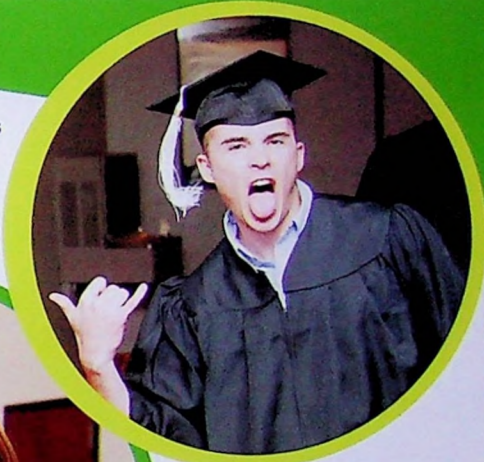

"I plan on finding a job in a church somewhere and being God's hands and feet."

-Joshua Alspaw

Bryce Jones has successfully finished his time at MCC.

What will you miss the most about MCC

MCC

"I am going to miss the closeness of everything. I have friends, class, and most importantly Radina's all within a few blocks of my room."

-Caitlin Bliss

Derby Christian Church Graduates: Josh Alspaw, Garret Modlin, Caitlin Bliss, Bryan Sammons, and Bryce Jones.

"It has been such a blessing to be here the past four years. There are many great things about MCC, but I will miss the community and deep friendships I have developed over my time here."

-Alicia Henry

I will miss the friends I have made here. MCC is a special place, and I will always remember my time in Manhattan fondly.

-Ben Field

Classmates and friends Jenn Giannina and Maeghan Diehl celebrate together.

Kayla Hawkins celebrates her special day with her family.

Justin Baugus receives his diploma from Chairman of the Board of Trustees Mark Posson.
